

Voting Our Vision & Values

Centers for Spiritual Living Values and Vision Summary

Before voting, familiarize yourself with Centers for Spiritual Living's values and vision. A summary of our values and vision are included below for quick and easy reference. For the complete text, see appendices A and B.

CSL Values

Accountability - Open Communication - Financial Health and Prosperity - Integrity - Love - Community Service - Safety - Compassion and Caring - Spiritual Living - Diversity and Inclusivity - Education - Transformation and Evolution - Creativity - Continuous Improvement

CSL Vision (Summary points)

We see a world that works for everyone
Where all life is honored as expressions of the Divine
Where people live according to spiritual truth
Where unity and connection are emphasized
Where humanity awakens to spiritual magnificence
Where humanity rediscovers personal creative power
Where we live as one global family
Where kinship with all life prospers
Where spiritual guidance is valued
Where we are called to conscious social action
Where people have enough food, homes, and a sense of belonging
Where forgiveness is the norm
Where there is peace, harmony, and justice for all.
Where there is a renewed emphasis on beauty, nature, creativity, art, and aesthetics
Where resources are valued, cared for, and shared
Where communities are meaningfully involved in service to the world

Then, in preparation for voting, research candidates and issues (see personalized ballot information in the Additional Resources Guide section.) Next, set time aside to apply the spiritual practice of vision to your process (see tips and guides below). Finally, when ready to make your selection, ask yourself:

- Which candidates for this position display values consistent with CSL's and its vision of a world that works for everyone?
- Does this ballot measure express the values of CSL and its vision of a world that works for everyone?
- Does this ballot measure reflect a positive direction for all in your community?

Before submitting the ballot, review and ensure you are at peace with your decisions. Check with your spiritual intuition, which our founder Dr. Holmes referred to as Divinity within humankind, about which candidates resonate most with your spiritual values. Visioning is one spiritual tool that can be used to access your spiritual intuition.

Guidelines for Visioning (adapted from Centers for Spiritual Living Department of Education)

- Determine the focus for the Visioning process, for example, "my vote."
- Center in Spirit. Enter the silence to establish your awareness of the Presence within. Anchor this awareness in Infinite Love, the overarching purpose of our lives.
- Ask questions to be open to the vision. Pause after each question to receive the vision. Choose four or five open-ended questions (see below) and allow unknown possibilities to be revealed. Write (or draw) your responses after each question or after the process.
  1. What is the highest idea in Creative Mind for (the focus of your Visioning)?
  2. What is my part in this vision?
  3. What must I release in me for this vision to unfold?
  4. What else, if anything, must I embrace to be this vision?

Visioning Tips

- Stay neutral during Visioning. Avoid judging, analyzing, or editing.
- Allow yourself sufficient, uninterrupted time to do your Visioning.
- Be patient and allow the vision to unfold and come into form in Spirit's time, not yours. Avoid drifting into planning, controlling, or attempting to "make things happen."

Interfaith Power & Light Voter Reflection Guide.

The Spiritually Motivated Social Engagement Committee recommends the 2020 Interfaith Power & Light "Voter Reflection Guide" because it remains relevant today. Interfaith Power & Light (interfaith power & light's mission & history) is a US-based broad coalition of faith groups with similar values to Centers for Spiritual Living. The guide initially came together around climate change, however it has evolved beyond environmental issues. In it, they lay out an interfaith values-based approach to voting on matters of Democracy & Voting Rights, Climate Justice, Loving our Immigrant Neighbors, An Economy of Inclusion, Moral Health Policies in a

Time of Pandemic, Restorative & Racial Justice, Respecting the Dignity of LGBTQ People, and the Global Common Good. They do not tell us what party or candidate to vote for. They give us a way to lovingly approach these issues that parties and candidates are talking about--we think it would be hard to create a better guide.

All Intelligence abides in your subconscious and awaits your call upon it. You may say you do not know what to do. But at the center of your mind is the clear decision that you should make. It is right there.

—Raymond Charles Barker

Spiritual Inspiration

Centers for Spiritual Living Values

Here are some Ernest Holmes quotes that you can use when talking about/posting information about civic responsibilities in a spiritual context:

We must think peace if we wish to express peace. The mind that is always confused and distraught is not at peace; the mind that is continuously upset and agitated by the little, petty things of life is not at peace; it is at war with itself. It is only when the individual mind ceases combating itself that it will stop combating others. We do not know when that far-off Divine Event will transpire which shall heal the world of the wounds of war, the memories of ancient strife and the anticipation of future struggle. All we know, as individuals, is that it is within our power to control our own thinking, to so order our own mind and thought that we, as individuals, shall be surrounded by peace.

—Dr. Ernest Holmes (The Essential Ernest Holmes, p. 172)

It is quite a burden lifted when we realize that we do not have to move the world – it is going to move anyway. This realization does not lessen our duty or our social obligation. It clarifies it. It enables us to do joyously, and free from morbidity, that which we should do in the social state.

—Dr. Ernest Holmes (The Science of Mind, p. 270.5)

First, at home, in the silence of our own thought, let us heal ourselves of fear, of doubt, of uncertainty. Let our lives be peaceful; let our lives be whole.

—Dr. Ernest Holmes (The Essential Ernest Holmes, p. 173)

Those of us who believe in peace should work toward this end. Let us never forget that the very impulse of that movement is in the silent contemplation, the prayerful meditation, the sincere expectancy in our own minds. Are we ready for peace?

—Dr. Ernest Holmes (The Essential Ernest Holmes, p. 173)

The power of choice with which man has been endowed is either his greatest blessing or his greatest curse. Properly understood, it can lift him to the heights; misunderstood, it can drag him to the depths. He is free to choose anything which he wishes, but he must accept the responsibility for his choices, because inexorable Law will create his experiences according to his choices. (p. 21.1)

—Dr. Ernest Holmes (Practical Application of Science of Mind [1958] p. 21)

We cannot afford to hold personal animosities or enmities against the world or individual members of society.

—Dr. Ernest Holmes (The Science of Mind [1938] p. 431)

New arts, new sciences, new philosophies, better government, and a higher civilization wait on our thoughts. The infinite energy of Life, and the possibility of our future evolution, work through our imagination and will. The time is ready, the place is where we are now, and it is done unto all as they really believe and act.

—Dr. Ernest Holmes (365 Science of Mind [2001] p. 51)

There can be no problem that cannot be solved unless we assume that Divine Intelligence does not know what It is doing. We must realize that every human problem, whether it is personal or the problem of the survival of civilization, is not a problem that cannot be solved, but merely one that has not been solved because it has not been properly presented to the Intelligence that knows everything. The Universe is one system and if any prayer has ever been answered since time began there was a principle, a law operating, and a way through which and by which it happened.

—Dr. Ernest Holmes (Creative Living [1975] p. 72.4)

Appendices

Appendix A

THE GLOBAL VISION FOR CENTERS FOR SPIRITUAL LIVING:

SECTION TWO – Organizational Design Model, page 3:

- We envision all people, all beings, and all life as expressions of God.
- We see a world in which every person lives in alignment with his/her highest spiritual principle, emphasizing unity with God and connection with each other; a world in which individually and collectively we are called to a higher state of consciousness and action.
- We envision humanity awakening to its spiritual magnificence and discovering the creative power of thought; a world where every person discovers his/her own personal power and ability to create an individual life that works within a world that works for everyone.
- We envision a world in which we live and grow as One Global Family that respects and honors the interconnectedness of all life; a world where this kinship with all life prospers and connects through the guidance of spiritual wisdom and experience.
- We envision a world where personal responsibility joins with social conscience in every area of the political, corporate, academic, and social sectors, providing sustainable structures to further the emerging global consciousness.
- We envision a world where every person has enough food, a home and a sense of belonging, a world of peace and harmony, enfranchisement and justice.
- We envision a world in which resources are valued, cared for, and grown, and where there is generous and continuous sharing of these resources.
- We envision a worldwide culture in which forgiveness (whether for errors, injustices, or debts) is the norm.
- We envision a world which has renewed its emphasis on beauty, nature, and love through the resurgence of creativity, art, and aesthetics.
- We envision a world that works for everyone and for all of creation.

Appendix B

OUR SHARED VALUES

SECTION TWO – Organizational Design Model, page 6:

Accountability: We account for our activities, disclose them in a transparent manner, and accept responsibility for our actions and the obligations entrusted to us.

- Open Communication: We communicate openly with each other in an atmosphere of collaboration and inclusion.

Financial Health and Prosperity: We express order and balance in our finances and experience optimal financial well-being. Through the richness of our teaching and its application, we value the principle of abundance and its expression as prosperity as a means to provide resources to empower our personal and collective vision.

Integrity: We embrace the quality of being honest and strive to let our inner convictions match our outer actions. We express wholeness, honesty and fairness in our relationships and activities.

Love: We embrace Love as the Self-Givingness of God to all creation, moving through us into expression as compassion, caring, mutual respect and kindness. We express Love as:

- Community Service: We dedicate our time, talent, treasure, and expertise to the healthy and joyful evolution of our spiritual community, the community in which we live and the greater community of the world.
- Safety: We create a community wide climate conducive to honest reflection and deep and direct communication.
- Compassion and Caring: We express interest in and support for the well-being of ourselves and others. We express unconditional love when observing the suffering of others and do what we can to give aid and show compassion.

Spiritual Living: As we learn and practice our philosophy, the Science of Mind, we live principle-centered, Spirit-led lives and turn to our principles for guidance in all moments and all areas of our lives. We express Spiritual Living as:

- Diversity and Inclusivity: We value, embrace and celebrate the individual uniqueness and contribution of all people as they express through differences of gender, ethnicity, culture, history, experience, talents and sexual orientation. We include representatives from all our organizational constituencies in leadership, sacred service and decision making.

- Education: We walk a path of awakening, growth, and spiritual deepening through classes, workshops, seminars, and spiritual practices that allow us to embrace education as a lifelong endeavor.
- Transformation and Evolution: We do deep inner personal work of self-discovery and healing to reveal the greater truth of our Divinity, wholeness, and freedom.
- Creativity: We allow the ongoing activity of Spirit into our hearts, minds and activities to bring forth new forms and expressions to inspire and guide.
- Continuous Improvement: We consistently welcome more and more of the Divine Nature to be realized within us and revealed through our relationships, our decisions and our contributions to the world.
