

Free support services for residents of Sonoma County

County of Sonoma Warm Line

Call for free and private support if you or someone you know is experiencing emotional stress and anxiety during the COVID-19 pandemic. Seven days a week from 10 am to 7 pm.

Virtual Local Assistance Center (VLAC)

The Virtual Local Assistance Center (VLAC) is a resource listing of governments and support services to help residents impacted by COVID-19.

Sonoma County 211

Questions or concerns? Call 2-1-1 or text your zip code to 898-211 to talk/text with a call taker 24/7. Text "COVID-19" to 211211 for pre-recorded information and resources.

Free Local Food Is One Text Away!

Free Local Food Is One Text Away!

Text FOOD is a text message based tool that will give you an immediate response that connects you to information about where to get food near you.

To use this free service, simply:

- Text the word FOOD to 707-353-6333
- You will be asked to reply, "1" for Meals or "2" for Groceries.
- Follow the prompt, send a text specifying the City or Zip code you are in.
- You will receive up-to-date information about the free food options close by!

Currently Available in the Following Zip Codes:

Annapolis: 95412 Cloverdale 95425 Geyserville: 95441 Healdsburg: 95448 Windsor: 95492 Glen Ellen: 95442
Santa Rosa: 95401, 95403, 95404, 95405, 95407, 95409 Sonoma Valley: 95476, 95416 Kenwood: 95452

Who is behind Text FOOD?

Gillian Haley, Executive Director of Justicewise*, is leading the initiative, with support from Montserrat Archila and Chelene Lopez from St. Joseph Healthcare System, Daniel Weinzeig from Sonoma Intersections Coalition, Rebuild North Bay, Redwood Empire Food Bank, Grace Cheung-Schulman and many other homeless advocates throughout Sonoma County. Contact gillian.haley@justicewise.org to learn more!

*Justicewise is a fiscally sponsored project of Inquiring Systems Inc, a 501c3 nonprofit.

