Lunchtime Learning: Finding the Heart of Our Teaching

Four Wednesdays in April from 12 noon to 1 pm

One of the first things one sometimes hears about our founder, Ernest Holmes, is how difficult he is to read. Rev. Tara Steele invites you to ramble through some of Holmes's earliest lectures, collected as Love and Law: The Unpublished Teachings of Ernest Holmes. The essays in the book are quite short and cover a variety of subjects. You will undoubtedly find some nuggets of spiritual wisdom as well as ideas that you may disagree with. In this weekly gathering, guided by Rev. Tara, you can look forward to rich conversations with diverse points of view. Everyone is welcome. Love and Law is available from Stepping Stones Books and Gifts. Click [HERE] to order. The Zoom link for Lunchtime Learning is <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88029232063>

Wednesday Night Live

On the first Wednesday of each month at 7 pm, we host a well-known guest presenter and provide time for questions and answers. When Are We Reopening?

The Center looks forward to the time when we can once again open our doors. We miss being together and look forward to seeing each other again. For the latest information, visit the COVID-19 Update article on our website: <https://cslsr.org/covid-19-update/>

Thank you for your patience, understanding, and support.

Space for Rent

While we cannot meet in person at the Center, we are exploring renting out some of our space. The Center has rented space to other organizations in the past, and it is appropriate now to put our resources to work for us until we can meet again in person.

We are working with a commercial real estate agent to let prospective lessees know that parts of our facility are available for short-term leases to entities that need more space during the Pandemic. We are not selling the building, just offering to rent portions of it. Ideally, we would like to make our rooms available for rent to hospitals, clinics, testing sites, storage space for supplies during the crisis, etc.

If you know of anyone who may be interested in leasing space at the Center, please have them contact
